Edeptis IV Awards

Alpha One, most notably, has received awards from the planet Edeptis IV.

Wrotfl Medal

The Wrotfl Medal is a slice of sapphire crystal, highly polished and engraved. It is Edeptis IV's highest honor given to off-worlders. It was given to Agents Omega and Echo, the Alpha One team, for their lifesaving work alongside Doron the healer in putting down a deadly pandemic of Vegan hemorrhagic fever on the northern continent of Edeptis IV.

The medal was presented alongside the Rtuwdk Medal to Doron, by Minister Teknon:

“...It is our great honor to welcome these three, only one of whom is of our world, and to recognize them for their lifesaving work. Doron, whose medical skills made possible the ending of the deadly pandemic of Vegan hemorrhagic fever on the northern continent; Echo, whose presence, willingness to help, knowledge and skill made possible the manufacture of sufficient medications for Doron to use; and Omega, whose idea to use the power core of Echo’s spacecraft to run the medical equipment, and which idea she communicated to her partner, made Echo’s contribution possible.” (Trojan Horse, referencing events in Tour de Force)

Rtuwdk Medal

The Rtuwdk Medal is a highly-polished and engraved slab of ruby on a ribbon, for placing about the neck. It is the highest honor that Edeptis IV can bestow. The only known recipient is the legendary healer, Doron. It was given to him, “For...willingness to risk illness and death on behalf of our people, and [his] wonderful success in developing new treatments for ever more diseases and injuries,” (Trojan Horse)

Emdalian Awards

Alpha One has racked up a few awards, including some here.

Rryssheett urr Byirr Entiyti

Rryssheett urr Byirr Entiyti — The Honor of the House Entiyti — is an award that was given to Alpha One (Agents Echo & Omega) at the behest of PGC President Pulgey Entiyti, after several "above and beyond the call of duty" actions the pair executed, most notably when they saved him from an assassin's bullet during the opening of a new PGLEIA Office on Emdali. It consisted of a pair of medals. "Each medal was about an inch wide, cut from a huge, single, flawless diamond, in the shape of an eight-pointed star." (Mega Moth)

"You have both performed, as the Earth saying is, 'above and beyond the call,' in protecting each other, in protecting the galactic president—namely, me—and in protecting the entire galaxy from a tyrant's coup, for months now—again and again. The Pan-Galactic Coalition has never had call to present such matters before; as galactic civilizations go, it is still relatively young, though it would not seem so to you. But there ARE such institutions on Emdali, as we come from what was once a semi-feudalistic society. And so, with the approval of the Emdalian House of Lords, the Ennead, and Administrator Wuxullian, it was decided to give you, not only these awards, but the ability to command an additional fleet, should it ever become necessary. Echo, in the eventuality that you become Director, with command of the Division One fleet, Omega may, if she so chooses and necessity deems, call out the Emdalian Grand Fleet in your support...You will henceforth be formally addressed on both Emdali and Aleancë as the Lord Commodore Echo, and the Lady Commodore Omega." ~President Entiyti, Mega Moth.

Lord/Lady Commodore of the Grand Fleet of Emdali

Along with the Rryssheett urr Byirr Entiyti, the Emdalian Council of Lords saw fit to bestow the joint titles of Commodore of the Grand Fleet of Emdali on Agents Echo and Omega. This gives them the right to be called Lord Commodore Echo and Lady Commodore Omega, and to command the Emdalian Grand Fleet, calling it up as an adjunct/additional fleet alongside the Division One Fleet.

“You have both performed, as the Earth saying is, ‘above and beyond the call,’ in protecting each other, in protecting the galactic president—namely, me—and in protecting the entire galaxy from a tyrant’s coup, for months now—again and again. The Pan-Galactic Coalition has never had call to present such matters before; as galactic civilizations go, it is still relatively young, though it would not seem so to you. But there ARE such institutions on Emdali, as we come from what was once a semi-feudalistic society. And so, with the approval of the Emdalian House of Lords, the Ennead, and Administrator Wuxullian, it was decided to give you, not only these awards, but the ability to command an additional fleet, should it ever become necessary. Echo, in the eventuality that you become Director, with command of the Division One fleet, Omega may, if she so chooses and necessity deems, call out the Emdalian Grand Fleet in your support...You will henceforth be formally addressed on both Emdali and Aleancë as the Lord Commodore Echo, and the Lady Commodore Omega.” ~President Pulgey Entiyti, Mega Moth.

Pan-Galactic Coalition Awards

The awards developed by the Pan-Galactic Coalition to honor galactic service.

Cross in Platinum of the Grand Galactic Alliance

The physical award is a silver-gold galactic-alloy chain with a large, deep-blue sapphire set in a platinum medallion in the shape of an equal-armed cross, and it comes with a substantial monetary award, which may be added to, for services "above and beyond the call." It also comes with the title of Lord or Lady as appropriate.

The Cross in Platinum of the Grand Galactic Alliance is the Pan-Galactic Coalition's greatest award and honor for valor in combat with enemy forces.

The first awards of the Cross in Platinum were to the Lady Myclestra of Alontora, the Lord Surlianth Surlianthet, Agent Echo of Alpha One, and Agent Omega of Alpha One.
