

Rryssheett urr Byirr Entiyti

Rryssheett urr Byirr Entiyti — The Honor of the House Entiyti — is an award that was given to Alpha One (Agents Echo & Omega) at the behest of PGC President Pulgey Entiyti, after several "above and beyond the call of duty" actions the pair executed, most notably when they saved him from an assassin's bullet during the opening of a new PGLEIA Office on Emdali. It consisted of a pair of medals. "Each medal was about an inch wide, cut from a huge, single, flawless diamond, in the shape of an eight-pointed star." (Mega Moth)

"You have both performed, as the Earth saying is, 'above and beyond the call,' in protecting each other, in protecting the galactic president—namely, me—and in protecting the entire galaxy from a tyrant's coup, for months now—again and again. The Pan-Galactic Coalition has never had call to present such matters before; as galactic civilizations go, it is still relatively young, though it would not seem so to you. But there ARE such institutions on Emdali, as we come from what was once a semi-feudalistic society. And so, with the approval of the Emdalian House of Lords, the Ennead, and Administrator Wuxullian, it was decided to give you, not only these awards, but the ability to command an additional fleet, should it ever become necessary. Echo, in the eventuality that you become Director, with command of the Division One fleet, Omega may, if she so chooses and necessity deems, call out the Emdalian Grand Fleet in your support...You will henceforth be formally addressed on both Emdali and Aleancë as the Lord Commodore Echo, and the Lady Commodore Omega." ~President Entiyti, Mega Moth.
