

Krasnovia

A planet in the Ardrub system, known for its manufacture of excellent waffle irons. On Earth, the name is sometimes used as a 'fictional' place for war games. This is because the officer stationed in D.C. is from the REAL Krasnovia. This has been the source of some confusion on Earth's social media, resulting in an author of some note being temporarily banned for referencing war gaming. (What no one realizes is that he is, himself, from Krasnovia.)
