The Division One Universe

This is the universe in which Omega, Echo, India, Romeo, Fox, Zebra, and the others live, love, and work.

The Alontoran Universe

This is the universe from which Lady Myclestra of Alontora came, in pursuit of a warpwraith who transitioned from that universe to the Division One universe. It contained warpwraiths, Alontorans (a genetically manipulated slave race) and the Masters, a race of powerful beings skilled in technomagic and genetics, responsible for enslaving and changing the Alontorans to suit their own needs.

The Star Drake Universe

Nothing is known of this universe, save that it is different from the Alontoran universe, and it possesses gigantic beings known as Star Drakes, a kind of dragonlike creature, sentient, very long-lived, and capable of converting mass to energy to power their bodies. They also seem possessed of great knowledge, curiosity, greed, and certain magickal abilities. It is possible, however, that what we perceive as magic is simply a very highly advanced technology.
